

Blue Form: International move of both of the player's biological parents.

If the player is moving to Australia with both of their biological parents for work or other non-football related reasons they will fall under the Blue Form. Click on the Form options below to find out which documents you need.

If the club is professional, we will require an extra document. We will require a letter from the new club stating the status of the new club and the expected duration of the registration.

Blue Form 1:

The player follows his/her parents due to the parents employment.

Blue Form 2:

The player follows his/her parents for another reason not linked to football.

Blue Form 1:

The player follows his/her parents due to the parent's employment.

Required Document

Documentation of academic education.	Proof of birth of the player.
Employment contract and work permit of player (where the player is professional).	Proof of identity and nationality of the player.
Employment contract of player's parent or parents, if both are working.	Proof of identity and nationality of both the player's parents.
Work permit of player's parent or parents, if both are working.	Proof of residence of the player's parents.
Request for approval of first registration or international transfer. (Minor ITC Application & Declaration Form).

Blue Form 2:

The player follows his/her parents for another reason not linked to football.

Required Document

Documentation of academic education.	Proof of birth of the player.
Employment contract and work permit of player (where the player is professional).	Proof of identity and nationality of the player.
Other documents corroborating the reason invoked	Proof of identity and nationality of both the player's parents.
Proof of residence of the player's parents.
Request for approval of first registration or international transfer. (Minor ITC Application & Declaration Form).	