

Red Form:

The player's new club is amateur, and the player is an exchange student undertaking an academic program abroad.

This exception can be used under the following conditions:

- The duration of the player's academic study program and the duration of the player's envisaged registration is less than one year.
- The duration of the player's academic study abroad program is longer than a year, but the player is turning 18 in less than a year.
- The duration of the player's study abroad program is longer than a year, but there is less than a year of the program remaining.

Required Document

Documentation of academic education.	Proof of birth of the player.
Documentation of exchange program.	Proof of identity and nationality of the player.
Request for approval of first registration or international transfer. (Minor ITC Application & Declaration Form).	Proof of identity and nationality of the player's parent(s).
Confirmation of player's return home.	Registration form for exchange program.
Documentation of accommodation/care.	Confirmation of player's participation from academic institution in home country.
Authorisation of biological parents/legal guardian/custody holder.	Authorisation of host parents.
Statement from the new association explaining the specific circumstances including status of new club and duration of registration (FA to Provide)	